

Meeting Minutes
January 23, 2023

The Mayor and Board of Commissioners of the City of Sweetwater met in a called meeting and workshop session on Monday, January 23, 2023 at 5 p.m. Mayor Lowe called the meeting to order and opened three proposals received on the security camera services:

Vendor Name	Vendor Location	Hourly Rates	Minimum Requirements Met	References
East TN Security Solutions	Sweetwater TN	$85 service rate plus $60/hr tech	Yes	Yes
Hiscall	Knoxville TN	$90/hr Tech Mgr- $250/hr; Eng-$170; Prog $150-200	Yes	Yes
Encore Tech	South Carolina	$75/hr plus per diem & travel	Yes	Yes

Commissioner Hughes moved to select East TN Security Solutions for security camera services. Commissioner Richeson seconded the motion. All voted in favor, with none opposed. The motion was carried.

In the workshop, the Recorder went through the Parks Master Plan with the board. No changes were requested. The item was placed on the February agenda for action.

Commissioner Richeson had requested Ordinance No. 1009 for discussion. He advised he felt the latest draft was good for the city and would protect the integrity of the festivals and keep the city in compliance with state statutes. He requested the item be placed on the agenda for February. Mayor Lowe reviewed the remaining agenda for February, including the Ordinance to transfer ownership of the Biggs home to the City of Sweetwater. The board decided to hold off on buying title insurance until the time we invest in the building. The item was on the February agenda for first reading. The board decided to host the long-range planning and capital improvement plan during the February workshop.

No further action was taken.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:45 p.m.

This the 23rd day of January, 2023.
